The BSB50120 DIPLOMA OF BUSINESS

The BSB50120 Diploma of Business is a nationally recognised qualification that provides graduates with the skills and knowledge to display initiative and judgement in planning, organising, implementing, and monitoring their own workload and the workload of others.

This qualification provides you with practical skills and experience in leadership and management across a range of enterprise and industry contexts. Graduates will plan, design, apply and evaluate solutions to unpredictable problems and identify, analyse and synthesise information from a variety of sources. Participants can study the program via supported distance delivery, attending our facilitated virtual workshops or a combination of both.

Printed learner's guides, assessment material, a personalised training Roadmap, and all relevant supporting resources are provided and posted to students. Our industry-leading facilitators will guide you through the concepts necessary to complete your course work.

SUPPORTED DISTANCE DELIVERY

Participants will be provided with a hard copy pack including Learner's Guide, printed workbooks, assessments, a personalised training roadmap, and all relevant supporting resources. In addition, access will be provided to the Pivot Online Learning System (POLS). This platform holds all the learning material, assessments, and resources needed to complete the qualification.

RECOGNITION OF PRIOR LEARNING (RPL)

Recognition of Prior Learning (RPL) is an assessment process that assesses your non-formal and formal learning to determine how your current skills and knowledge match the competency outcomes for the partial or full qualification. RPL must be based on evidence that can be matched against relevant units. This evidence will depend upon the unit and some evidence will go across a number of units. Your assessor must be satisfied that you have addressed all the requirements of the relevant unit before they can grant you RPL in that unit. RPL assessment at The Pivot Institute allows you to evidence your skills and knowledge through the completion of an RPL kit.

The Pivot Institute's assessments are aimed at adding value to the individual and their organisations. Assessments with The Pivot Institute are true to the unit of competency, but are tailored to the needs of the individual and the organisation. This means that where possible, we ensure that the assessment fits into what you are doing in your workplace as part of your daily workplace activities. The result is assessment that is meaningful and valuable whilst ensuring you have the knowledge and skills as outlined in the unit of competency. Your assessments will consist of a number of tasks which will include a combination of written questions, observations, workplace projects, case studies, practical tasks, and third-party reports.

HOW LONG WILL THE QUALIFICATION TAKE

The average time it takes to complete a qualification varies significantly depending on the skills and knowledge you already hold relevant to training and assessment. If, for example, you are attending facilitated classes and you have completed relevant activities, you still need to allow the following suggested time to complete the Qualification:

Estimated study hours (per week)

*The AQF states that the volume of learning for a Diploma qualification is 1 - 2 years or (1,200 -2,400 hours).
